MALAYAN INSURANCE

What is the Loss of Use cover?

It is an additional motorcar insurance cover, which provides the policyholder with an additional benefit of P500.00 a day transportation reimbursement (up to a maximum of 15 days per policy period) when the insured vehicle is not available for use as a result of loss or damage compensable under the Own Damage/Theft cover of the policy

Who can avail of the benefits of the Loss of Use cover?

Every private car policyholder insured with Malayan under the Own Damage and Theft cover can avail of this benefit through the LOU Endorsement for a minimal amount added to the basic premiums.

Those insured under the Compulsory Third Party Liability (CTPL) cover must get the Own Damage/Theft cover first before they can avail of the LOU

When will the Loss of Use Allowance start?

On the 4th day the insured vehicle undergoes repair at any repair shop authorized by the company, the Insured is entitled to the reimbursement of transportation expenses equal to P500.00 per day for a maximum of fifteen (15) days per policy period.

In the case of carnapped vehicles, the transportation allowance shall commence on the 4th day following the report of such theft to the PNP.

What must the Insured do in the event of a claim?

Upon the filing of a claim under the Own Damage cover, simply fill-up part 1 of the LOU Availment form which can be secured from our Claims Department and submit it, together with a photocopy of the LOU Endorsement, to the Claims Department.
